

RMT

Alimentation Locale

10th Anniversary!

On 5th and 6th of November

French network of SFSC
(Short Food Supply Chain) stakeholders

Rennes
(France)

Registration open
<https://urlr.me/WxTJQm>

With the support of :

Funded by
the European Union

RMT

Alimentation Locale

10th Anniversary!

Day 1

Wednesday, 5 November

 09h15 09h45	Welcoming participants
 09h45 10h10	Launch speech
 10h10 11h30	Round tabl Understanding the evolution of short food supply chains: different perspectives
 11h30 12h30	Round tabl Short supply chains in the face of uncertainty: discussion on resilience and robustness
12h30 14h00	Lunch break
14h00 15h15	Breakout workshops- session 1
15h15 15h45	Break
15h45 17h00	Breakout workshops - session 2
 17h15 18h00	Summary of the day
18h00 20h30	Discussions around a table of local produce to taste

Day 2

Thursday, 6 November

 08h30 09h00	Welcoming participants
 09h00 09h15	Launch speech
 09h15 10h15	SFSC at European level: discussion with the COREnet project
 10h15 11h45	Discussions on future RMT themes with young researchers
 11h45 12h15	Closing speech
12h15 13h15	Lunch break
13h15 16h30	6 thematic field visit exploring the work of committed changemakers

Registration:

<https://urlr.me/WxTJQm>

RMT

Alimentation Locale

10th Anniversary!

Day 1

Wednesday, 5 November

	09h15 09h45	Welcoming participants
	09h45 10h10	Launch speech
	10h10 11h30	Round tabl. Understanding the evolution of short food supply chains: different perspectives	Yuna Chiffoleau (INRAE), Françoise Morizot-Braud (CERD), Jean-Sébastien Piel (FR CIVAM Bretagne), Manon Pradère (INRAE)
	11h30 12h30	Round table. Short supply chains in the face of uncertainty: discussion on resilience and robustness	Yuna Chiffoleau (INRAE), Olivier Hamant (INRAE) et Ludovic Josse (FR CIVAM Bretagne)
	12h30 14h00	Lunch break
	14h00 15h15	Breakout workshops Session 1	 • Sharing inspiring examples of advising and support across Europe • Working together to find logistical solutions in the regions • Co-producing data on SFSC • Strengthening the role of SFSC in agricultural education • Developing opportunities for everyone to consume SFSC's products
	15h15 15h45	Break
	15h45 17h00	Breakout workshops Session 2	 • Diversifying tools for supporting short supply chains • Working together to find logistical solutions in the regions • Identify, understand and choose digital tools to support SFSC • Facilitating and promoting partnerships between farmers and artisans, and with the catering industry • Exploring synergies between agroecology, biodiversity and SFSC
	17h15 18h00	Summary of the day
	18h00 20h30	Discussions around a table of local produce to taste

Registration :
<https://urlr.me/WxTJQm>

Hôtel de Rennes Métropole, 4 avenue Henri Fréville, Rennes
Contact : animation@rmt-alimentation-locale.org

RMT

Alimentation Locale

10th Anniversary!

Day 2

Thursday, 6 November

 08h30 09h00	Welcoming participants
 09h00 09h15	Launch speech
 09h15 10h15	SFSC at European level: discussion with the COREnet project
 10h15 11h45	Discussions on future RMT themes with young researchers
 11h55 12h15	Closing speech
12h15 13h15	Lunch break
13h15 16h30	6 thematic field visit exploring the work of committed changemakers	• How can farming collectives adapt to fluctuations in purchasing behaviour? • How can we support [people/eaters] in adopting a sustainable and accessible diet? From the home to collective catering, including the involvement of beneficiaries. • What new training programmes are needed to support those involved in SFSC projects? • How are newcomers renewing localised food systems? • What specific logistics are required for efficient and accessible short supply chains? • How can we meet the challenges of transformation in order to promote local smallholder agricultural production?

Registration :
<https://urlr.me/WxTJQm>

Hôtel de Rennes Métropole, 4 avenue Henri Fréville, Rennes
Contact : animation@rmt-alimentation-locale.org